COMPANY INFORMATION

- Background – the company was formed by Danny & Sylvia Wilson, both having a passion for dogs and a wide range of dog training knowledge and skills gained over many years with both difficult dogs and obedience training.
- Why Bark Busters – the idea for a service that helped dogs and their owners was recognised while Sylvia was Manager of an RSPCA Animal Shelter. After seeing too many dogs surrendered due to behavioural problems Sylvia knew she could help dog owners cure their dog's bad behaviour.
- Why We Care – Bark Busters training therapists are driven by their passion for dogs, their welfare and their well-being. All Bark Busters therapists are full time, highly skilled professional people that take pride in their work and assist in developing a communication system between dogs and their owners.
- Customer Satisfaction – Bark Busters knowledge of dogs is unsurpassed and has been gained and built upon over many years of specialising in difficult and hard to train dogs.
- Client Support – Bark Busters provide dog owners with a written “Life of the Dog Guarantee” on Gold Class lessons or a “12 month Limited Guarantee” on all Silver Class lessons. This provides dog owners with free assistance when required for the period of the Guarantee. Bark Busters also provides a Free Call number for clients and our therapists are available 7 days a week.
- Services – Bark Busters provide a range of services to suit dogs of all ages and budgets:
 - Private Home Therapy – in home training that deals with all behavioural problems, training obedience and provides the owner Bark Busters exclusive “Life of the Dog Guarantee” or 12 month Limited Guarantee.
 - Puppy School – special courses designed for young puppies to provide safe socialisation and vital training to assist in social development.
 - Group Training – for dogs and owners that like to get out and socialise. Group classes provide basic to advanced obedience training with expert guidance.
- Safety Courses – Bark Busters offers a range of safety courses to organisations, clubs/groups and the general public and can tailor courses to suit all situations and environments:
